3-30 P. M.

MR. DEPUTY SPEAKER.—You please first vacate and go down. If you are under an impression that by surrounding me you would succeed to coerce me I can assure you that you are totally mistaken. I can assure you clearly and candidly that you can never brow-beat me or cource me by such things. Such things will have absolutely no effect upon me. But I shall certainly be amenable to reasons and nothing else but reason.
